The Capital City Classic Dressage Competition 2022 is sanctioned as a Gold Class C and Bronze competition member of Equestrian Canada, 11 Hines Road, Suite 201, Ottawa, Ontario, K2K 2X1, and is governed by the rules of EC. (A602.1) Statement of Principle: Equine Canada (EC), the National Federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses/ponies in all competitions under its jurisdiction. EC is committed to upholding the welfare of the horses/ponies, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities. Requiring that horses/ponies be treated with kindness, respect and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment. Ensuring that owners, trainers and exhibitors or their agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses/ponies as well as horses/ponies placed in their care for any purpose; providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure; providing current information on Code of Practice for the Care and Handling of Equines and other equine health and welfare initiatives; continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare; requiring owners, trainers and exhibitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules, and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competition; reviewing, revising and developing competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horses/ponies. The standard by which conduct, or treatment will be measured is that which a person, informed and experienced in generally accepted exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive nor inhumane.

RULES AND REGULATIONS - GOLD

GENERAL RULES

1. Every class offered herein is covered by the rules and specifications of the current rules of EC and will be held and judged in accordance with the EC Rule Book and in particular Section E Dressage 2022. (A602.2) Knowledge of the rules is the responsibility of the competitor. Please direct questions regarding rules and regulations to the Steward. All competitors are advised to check the Equestrian Canada Web site: www.equestrian.ca
2. ARTICLE E 4.0 SAFETY HEADGEAR (effective Jan 1, 2014). All athletes, regardless of age or level or competition, must wear properly fitted and fastened approved protective headgear at all times when mounted at any EC-sanctioned Dressage competition at the event location.
Note: At the tack check which follows the test, the steward may ask the athlete to dismount so that the helmet may be inspected.
 - a) All athletes of any age must wear protective headgear at all times while mounted at the event location.
 - b) The penalty for contravening E 4.0. is elimination.
 - c) Non-competing athletes who contravene E 4.0. will be instructed to dismount until wearing a properly fitted and fastened helmet.
3. Any horse/pony entered in any class at a competition may be selected for equine medication control testing while at the event location. (A602.5)
4. All horses attending Equestrian Canada Sanctioned competitions must have met the requirements of Article A519, Vaccinations. See Rules of Equestrian Canada, Section A, General Regulations, Article A519, Vaccinations.

I hereby accept this risk and hold harmless EC, the competition, their officials, organizers, agents, employees and their representatives. The person(s) responsible (PR) agrees to the release of any information on the entry form to EC. (A.802.4)

I hereby certify that every horse listed on this entry form has met the requirements of Article 519 Vaccinations. See rules of Equestrian Canada, Section A, General Regulations, Article A519, Vaccinations. The Person(s) Responsible for a horse/pony is an adult who has, or shares, responsibility for the care, training, custody, and performance of the horse/pony and who has official responsibility for that horse/pony under EC Rules and is liable under the penalty provisions of the Rules for any violation of the EC Rules. The Person(s) Responsible must hold an EC individual or group license, exception to this rule is parents or guardians of minor competitors. (see A203.4). As per Article A801, entry at an EC-sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the persons responsible that the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider and horse shall be subject to the EC constitution and all rules of EC and any additional rules set by the competition. It is the responsibility of all individuals participating in any capacity in EC-sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and the applicable rules of EC and the additional rules, if any, imposed by the competition. Do not participate in this EC-sanctioned competition in any capacity if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any additional rules imposed by the competition (A602.7). For the purpose of these Rules, the Person(s) Responsible is normally the trainer, owner or the competitor who rides or drives the horse/pony during an event, or a parent or legal guardian in the case of junior competitors. The Person(s) Responsible is/are ultimately responsible for the condition, fitness and management of the horse/pony and is/are alone responsible for any act performed in the stables by himself or herself or by any other person with authorized access to the horse/pony, or while the horse/pony is being ridden, driven or exercised.) Parents and guardians are entitled to sign their children's entry forms without being EC members or holder of a sport license, provided they agree to abide by the rules and penalties contained in the Rule Book (A.214.2).
